

Connecting and powering IP Cameras over Fiber cables

The Vi5001s are used for long distance high bandwidth transmission applications. The Vi5001 provides up to 30W PoE power to meet the high power requirements of PoE cameras.

Connecting and powering IP Cameras over Fiber cables

By using the SFPs, the Vi5001 will be compatible with most installed fiber types and can be directly connected to SFP modules installed in network switches.